

INDUSTRIAL MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN

Apprenticeship Information Sessions

Join Us Online or In Person...

The demand for industrial maintenance technicians is growing! Randolph county is building a pipeline of highly skilled talent to meet the need through a new work-based learning program.

- Meet Employer Partners
- IMT Apprenticeship Overview
 - On-The-Job Training - Develop an electrical, mechanical, and automation skill set, working 3 days a week.
 - Education - Earn an Industrial Systems Technology Associate degree at RCC in 2 years in class 2 days a week.
 - Progressive Wage Scale - Starting pay begins at $17/hour (or more depending on employer) and increases throughout the program.
- Tour of RCC Classrooms & Labs
- Q & A

Companies
Recruiting for 2025:

VIRTUAL:

Oct. 22-4-5 p.m. or 5-6 p.m. or 6-7 p.m.

Scan QR code for Microsoft Teams link & join or sign into Teams app and put the following:

Meeting ID: 350 658 828 943

Passcode: x2JiMb

OR

IN PERSON: Nov. 14 - 5:30-6:30 p.m.

Meet in the lobby of Randolph Community College's Continuing Education & Industrial Center, 413 Industrial Park Ave., Asheboro